

Ishaq Imruh Bakari

Book Launch & In Conversation

12 May 2018
FREE, 1-3pm

Chapelton Library
The Reginald Centre
263 Chapelton Rd, Leeds LS7 3EX

The Leeds launch of internationally renowned writer & film-maker Ishaq Imruh Bakari's latest poetry collection.

The event will feature readings and discussion with Sai Murray about Bakari's poetry (which includes an unpublished collection from the 1970's: "Chapelton is on Fire") and recollections of Bakari's involvement with social justice campaigns in Leeds, including the early movement to remember David Oluwale and the community action that resulted in the 1973 Cowper Street School strike.

WORDS IN THE CITY

A WITC micro-commission.
Supported by Ilkley Literature Festival as part of their Words in the City programme.

In partnership with Chapelton Arts, Remember Oluwale, and the Racial Justice Network.